In 2017 the RUSSIAN TEXTILE WEEK aroused the widespread interest of the business and the business community in Russia and many other countries. The participants of almost all activities of the Week-2017 at the "Expocentre" were the representatives of the highest legislative and executive authorities of the country, federal agencies, the heads of many entities of the Federation, expert and scientific communities. In general, all the activities of the "Week", including the exhibition and forum grounds, were visited by about 20 000 people.

Business events of the RUSSIAN TEXTILE WEEK-2017 made it possible to determine the main directions of development of almost all sub-sectors of the textile and light industry of Russia, which envisage the financial, economic, scientific, industrial, personnel and other industry issues. Estimates of this kind were made by many government officials and business representatives, who became active participants in the intensive three-day business program of the RUSSIAN TEXTILE WEEK.
